

Venues NSW Conditions of Entry Stadium Australia & Sydney Football Stadium

Venues NSW is responsible for the care, control and management of its venues and their surrounding precincts (collectively, “the venue and precinct”)

By entering the scheduled lands, comprising any venue operated and managed by Venues NSW and any surrounding precinct, you agree to the terms and conditions set out below together with those referred to on your ticket.

You are entering licensed premises. Venues NSW reserves the right to refuse entry or evict:

- Any person who is intoxicated.
- Any person behaving in a disorderly manner.
- Any person that does not have a valid form of entry or who is unauthorised to be on or within the venues or precincts.
- Any person who refuses to submit to security screening upon entering a venue precinct or inside a venue as directed by an authorised officer of Venues NSW.

Information for Patrons

- Patrons, staff and visitors should be aware that sporting equipment such as footballs or cricket balls may be kicked, thrown or struck from the playing field or arena into the seating areas at any time. Venues NSW is not responsible for any injury, illness or damage caused by balls being kicked, thrown or struck into the seating areas.
- Umbrellas are allowed into Venues NSW venues but cannot be opened in the seating bowl while an event is in progress. Certain events or ticket types may not allow umbrellas to be brought into Venues NSW venues. Please refer to the event page and your pre-event emails for event-specific information.
- Cloaking facilities may not be available.
- Children must be supervised at all times by an accompanying adult while in the venue or precinct.
- Children aged three years and under are permitted to sit on the lap of a ticket holder. They do not require a separate ticket provided they do not occupy a seat. One child per adult.
- Other than ambulances and emergency transport, all vehicles including bicycles are to give way to pedestrians.
- Security Master Licence no. 407431355
